Name of Guest Speaker-Mr. Khamosh Lagad

SCSSS's Sitabai Thite College of Pharmacy organized guest lecture on "Career Abroad: How to Settle and Work in Indonesia".

Mr. Lagad emphasized the importance of understanding and embracing the Indonesian culture.

Mr. Lagad commenced by providing an overview of Indonesia, its culture, economy and the diversity of opportunities available. He elaborated on the various types of visas available for foreign nationals seeking to work in Indonesia. He outlined the application process, documentation requirements, and key regulations governing immigration.

Also included a discussion of Indonesia's jobs market, the industries in demand, and the qualifications and skills that foreign professionals can leverage to secure employment.

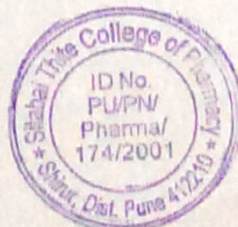

Mr. Lagad also emphasized the importance of networking and building professional connections. Also addressed cultural and language challenges that expatriates might encounter when living and working in Indonesia. He offered practical advice on adapting to the local culture and language.

Students gained valuable insights into the legal and financial considerations of working in Indonesia, including labor laws and financial planning.
